Would you like to become a coach?

Listening deliberately, with fascination, and asking great questions is the basis of fantastic care. This is coaching – it helps us to see things differently, find purpose and success in our roles, and look after our wellbeing.

We are offering fully funded training in ILM 5 Certificate in Effective Coaching and Mentoring to anyone working in health and social care in Bristol, North Somerset & South Gloucestershire. Everyone can apply – no matter your role, seniority, or level of responsibility. We are also offering a number of training opportunities to people from underrepresented and protected characteristic groups as part of our Positive Action scheme.

Applications are open now until 30th April. To find out more visit our information page or contact Millie.OKeeffe@nhs.net
