Making sure everyone is treated fairly

The information you give us in this part of the form is confidential.

Confidential means we will not tell anyone about your information.

This part of the form will not be given to the people who decide if you will be interviewed for the job.

We will only use this information to find out:

who has applied for the job

who has been chosen for an interview

who gets the job

Then we can check that we are in line with the Equality Act 2010.

So we need to ask everyone who applies for an NHS job some questions.

This helps us to make sure no-one is treated unfairly or left out.

The NHS wants:

our staff to represent its local community

• people of different backgrounds to apply for our jobs

Under the Equality Act 2010, every organisation must show that no one is left out because of their:

Age

Disability

Sex or gender

Religion
