

Reference: FOI.ICB-2526/127

Subject: Commissioning and Provision of Cervical Screening Services and Policies Regarding Provision of Services for Disabled Patients

I can confirm that the ICB does hold some of the information requested; please see responses below:

QUESTION	RESPONSE
Freedom of Information request for any and all documentation pertaining to the commissioning and provision of cervical screening services under the remit of BNSSG.	The ICB does not hold this information. The NHS Cervical Screening Programme is Commissioned by NHS England. NHS England can be contacted via:  https://www.england.nhs.uk/contact-us/foi/
And a second Freedom of Information request for all local policies regarding provision of services for disabled, especially housebound patients and the legal responsibility to make reasonable adjustments. This could include, but shouldn't be limited to, the relevant section of the GP contract.	The ICB is subject to the Equalities Act and does not have any local policies which conflict with the act. The GP Contract is agreed between the BMA (British Medical Association) and NHS England and is not within the remit of the ICB. The GP Contract is agreed between NHS England and the BMA and is not for local determination.

The information provided in this response is accurate as of 7 August 2025 and has been approved for release by Jenny Bowker, Deputy Director of Performance and Delivery – Primary Care and Children's Services for NHS Bristol, North Somerset and South Gloucestershire ICB.