Subject: eConsult Governance and Local DPIA Compliance at Courtside Surgery

I can confirm that the ICB does not hold the information requested; please see responses below:

QUESTION	RESPONSE
1. Copies of any guidance, circulars, or instructions issued by the ICB to GP practices about carrying out local DPIAs or six-month information-governance reviews for eConsult, following the national NHS England DPIA (May 2020).	The ICB has not sent any guidance, circulars, or instructions to GP practices about carrying out local DPIAs or six-month information-governance reviews. Practices are the data controllers under UK GDPR. The ICB has commissioned a DPO service for practices to support them with DPIAs.
2. Any correspondence, assurance returns, or confirmations received from Courtside Surgery showing they:  a) completed a local DPIA; b) carried out the six-month review; c) registered eConsult on their Information Asset Register.	The ICB has not requested any assurance returns, or confirmations from Courtside Surgery for the points listed.
3. Any internal audit reports, compliance checks, or monitoring documents the ICB holds concerning Courtside Surgery's handling or governance of eConsult.	The ICB does not hold any internal audit reports, compliance checks, or monitoring documents concerning Courtside Surgery's handling or governance of eConsult.
