

Reference: FOI.ICB-2627/133

Subject: Population Health Management Information

I can confirm that the ICB does hold some of the information requested; please see responses below:

QUESTION	RESPONSE
1. The job title and team/department with overall responsibility for Population Health Management within the ICB.	Chief Population Health Improvement Officer, Population Health Improvement
2. Where held, the name and job title of the individual with overall responsibility for Population Health Management.	Dr Joanne Medhurst, Chief Population Health Improvement Officer
3. For each of the following long-term condition programmes: a. Diabetes b. Respiratory disease (including COPD and asthma) c. Cardiovascular disease please provide: • the role, team or department responsible; • where held, the name and job title of the current clinical and/or operational lead; and	The ICB does not have programme areas aligned to individual long term conditions and therefore does not have individual names/roles.

the most appropriate contact email address for each of the above roles or teams. If a direct email address cannot be disclosed, please provide an alternative contact route.
4. Where responsibility for any of the above sits within a wider portfolio, please provide details of the most appropriate role, team or department responsible for commissioning, transformation, population health improvement, or pathway development.	The ICB is currently going through a process of organisational change, and lines of responsibilities for individual disease pathways is broadly aligned to the Strategic Commissioning Directorate - however roles have not yet been confirmed.

The information provided in this response is accurate as of 22 July 2026 and has been approved for release by Dr Geeta Iyer, Deputy Chief Medical Officer for NHS Bristol, North Somerset and South Gloucestershire ICB.